

Fact Retrieval Questions

Poems can be a bit wordy and complicated, but there are still plenty of cold hard facts to be found. Look at these FACT RETRIEVAL questions and see if you can dig out a few details.

1. Read the first line of the poem.

What causes the dog to look up?

.....

1
mark

2. While waiting, the dog

barks
twice

does not bark

barks
once

barks
three times

1
mark

Circle your answer.

3. Look at the part of the poem that starts 'He scans the faces...' and ends '...by honor he is bound.'

Write down two things the dog is doing while he scans people's faces.

.....

.....

2
marks

4. Which direction does the whistle come from?

.....

1
mark

5. What does the dog do when he hears the whistle?

trembles

growls

frowns

freezes

1
mark

Circle your answer.

Poetrydactyls love fact retrieval questions more than they love chasing chickens. How did you get on?

