

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

1. Cut out each item.
2. Match the description with the picture.
3. Sort them into the following categories in the table: people, crime or punishment.

A group of people, including a judge and jury, who come together and decide on whether people are guilty or not according to the law.

The act of killing someone deliberately, not by accident.

The criminal act of deliberately setting fire to property.

The act of being put to death as punishment for breaking the law.

This is a person who has been chosen to decide cases in a law court.

A person harmed, injured or killed as a result of a crime, accident or other event.

A wooden frame with holes for the head and hands where someone would be forced to stay for lengths of time and be embarrassed in public, sometimes having things thrown at them.

A person who sees an event, such as a crime, take place.

A group of (usually twelve) people who give a verdict in a case based on the information that is presented in a court.

To be sent away from the home country forever, and never allowed to come back.

The action or crime of stealing, taking something you do not own.

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

People	Crime	Punishment

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

1. Cut out each item.
2. Match the description with the picture.
3. Sort them into the following categories in the table: people, crime or punishment.
4. Are there any more crimes and punishments you can think of? Add them to the table.

A group of people, including a judge and jury, who come together and decide on whether people are guilty or not according to the law.

The act of killing someone deliberately, not by accident.

The criminal act of deliberately setting fire to property.

The act of being put to death as punishment for breaking the law.

This is a person who has been chosen to decide cases in a law court.

A person harmed, injured or killed as a result of a crime, accident or other event.

A wooden frame with holes for the head and hands where someone would be forced to stay for lengths of time and be embarrassed in public, sometimes having things thrown at them.

A person who sees an event, such as a crime, take place.

A group of (usually twelve) people who give a verdict in a case based on the information that is presented in a court.

To be sent away from the home country forever, and never allowed to come back.

The action or crime of stealing, taking something you do not own.

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

Empty rounded rectangular box with a pair of glasses icon on the right side.

People	Crime	Punishment

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

1. Cut out each item.
2. Match the description with the picture.
3. Sort them into the following categories in the table: people, crime or punishment.

judge	jury	court	arson
exile	theft	murder	execution
pillory	victim	witness

A group of people, including a judge and jury, who come together and decide on whether people are guilty or not according to the law.	The act of killing someone deliberately, not by accident.	The criminal act of deliberately setting fire to property.
The act of being put to death as punishment for breaking the law.	This is a person who has been chosen to decide cases in a law court.	A person harmed, injured or killed as a result of a crime, accident or other event.
A wooden frame with holes for the head and hands where someone would be forced to stay for lengths of time and be embarrassed in public, sometimes having things thrown at them.	A person who sees an event, such as a crime, take place.	A group of (usually twelve) people who give a verdict in a case based on the information that is presented in a court.
To be sent away from the home country forever, and never allowed to come back.	The action or crime of stealing, taking something you do not own.

Crime and Punishment Vocabulary

Are there any more crimes and punishments that you can think of? Add them to the table.

People	Crime	Punishment

Extra Challenge

Imagine that you are a judge living in AD 300, in Roman Britain. An ordinary citizen has been brought to court, charged with stealing twenty cows from the local farmer. What will you say to him when you decide on your verdict? Think about what punishment the man will receive.

As judge, I have heard all the evidence and have made my decision. You have been accused of..
