Today we're listening to chapters 8-10.
Click on the links below to listen to them.

LO: Visualise a character

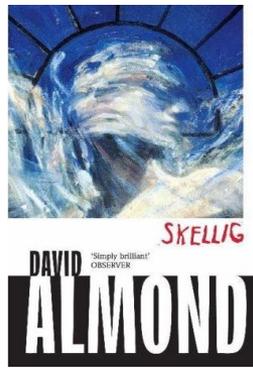

We are going to visualise a character using the description given by the author today.

What do we now know about the creature in the garage?

Brainstorm some ideas.

LO: Visualise a character

Your task is to draw the creature as you imagine him to look using ideas from the text.

Remember to annotate your drawing.

I've had a go on the next slide...

Write a description of a character -
Skellig

Plan

- face
- clothes
- how he sits
- what he does
- wings

Start

His red eyes squinted at the sight of my torch. I stared at his pale, cracked skin wondering what could have happened to him.

The next slides contain extracts from chapter ten.
