English: Grammar re-cap

Today we are looking at tenses:

- Past Perfect

Paul had kicked the ball.

Eva had licked the lolly.

- Present Perfect

Paul has kicked the ball.

I have licked the lolly.

We use the past tense of the verb 'to have' (had) and the past tense of the main verb to show that the action was completed in the past before something else happened.

We use the present tense of the verb 'to have' (have/has) and the past tense of the main verb to show that the action started in the past and is continuous up until now.

English: Grammar task

Use the following words to make up sentences in the past and present perfect tenses:

Past Perfect

I eat spaghetti.

They play tennis.

You draw a picture.

Present Perfect

He does the housework.

We climb a tree.

Emily drinks juice.

English: Writing

Write the next paragraph to this story.

- What can you infer about Ben's previous life in the city? How is it different now?
- How does he spend his days?
- How does he travel?

Solitary existence

Six months earlier, Ben had lived in the city. Life had been busy; a constant buzz of people and traffic. In some ways, living in the city had been comforting, as if he was part of an urban family, a melting pot of people of all ages and all walks of life. However, Ben had tired of that life; it was now time for a change of direction.

Ext: Try to use the new vocabulary you have learnt: Ferocious, Transparent, Feeble, Trivial and try to include both the past and present perfect tenses.
