Multiply Word Problems

Answer these multiplication word problems in your homework/spelling book using the short formal method (short multiplication).

Envelopes are sold in packs of 48. I have bought 6 packs. How many envelopes do I have? 48 x 6 = 288	A teacher asks their class to arrange some chairs into 17 rows of eight. How many chairs will be laid out? 17 x 8 = 136
A baker bakes 152 loaves of bread every day. How many loaves will they have baked in one week? 152 x 7 = 1,064	A school buys 196 packs of pencils. Each pack contains 8 pencils. How many pencils are purchased? 196 x 8 = 1,568
Our school library has 104 books on each of its 9 bookshelves. How many books is that in total? 104 x 9 = 936	Charlie has packed his soldiers into 4 boxes ready to move house. He has managed to pack 365 soldiers in each box. How many soldiers does Charlie have altogether? 365 x 4 = 1,460
At their wedding, Anjou and Dave gave each guest a goody bag with 6 special presents inside. They invited 746 people to the ceremony. How many presents did they have to buy for the bags? 746 x 6 = 4,476	On Saturday, 592 people each paid £8 to get into a theme park. How much did the park make on that day? 592 x 8 = 4,736