

Answers

1. When was King George V first asked to read the Royal Christmas Message? Tick one.

- 1932
- 1902
- 1922

2. Why did the King initially refuse to read the message?

- He didn't like Christmas.
- He thought that it was too early.
- He thought that radio was only for entertainment.

3. Find and copy one word which means to persuade someone to do something.
encouraged

4. What does the King or Queen say in their Royal Christmas Message?

The King or Queen says something about the past year and they include a personal comment.

5. Who wrote the 1932 Royal Christmas Message? Tick one.

- King George V
- The Queen
- Rudyard Kipling

6. Who has read the Royal Christmas Message since 1953?

Queen Elizabeth II has read the Royal Christmas message since 1953.

7. Tick true or false for the following statements.

	True	False
The Beatles had four Christmas number ones in a row.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Al Martino reached number one with 'Here in My Heart'.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Elvis Presley had a Christmas number one in 1962.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
St. Winifred's School Choir sang about their grandad.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>